Bacco Ristorante hires pastry chef

Carrie Crawford has been hired as a pastry chef at Bacco Ristorante in Southfield. Her specialties include made-from-scratch gelato, sorbet, tortes, specialty cakes and a full array of traditional Italian desserts. Additionally, all breads and bakery goods are now made on site at the restaurant. Crawford attended Le Cordon Bleu in Pittsburgh and was valedictorian of her class while earning a degree in patisserie and baking. Prior to joining Bacco, she worked in the pastry department in the prestigious Duquesne Club, also in Pittsburgh.
